Cary Street Partners Adds Financial Advisor to its Richmond Team

Richmond, Virginia – November 5, 2018 – Cary Street Partners is pleased to announce that Russell Rea Keller, Jr. has joined its Richmond wealth management team. Mr. Keller brings his 29 years of broad-based experience in the banking and finance industry to bear for his clients. Recently named to a top spot among Richmond based wealth management companies in BizSense The List, Mr. Keller adds to Cary Street Partners' strong and growing wealth management team.

"We are deeply proud of our founding in Richmond and, in particular, the positive impact we make on our clients' financial lives here and beyond," said Joseph R. Schmuckler the CEO of Cary Street Partners' parent company, Luxon Financial. "Rea brings to our firm an accomplished career of client service and excellent advice which continues to build on the strong foundation and tradition of our firm in Richmond."

Mr. Keller said, "I have always had a particular focus in financial technologies and the differentiating qualities among firms. In Cary Street Partners I feel at home with colleagues who welcome the tools which help me to be at the competitive front of the line helping to serve my clients and their varied estate, financial and life goals." Mr. Keller previously served his clients as a Partner, Investment Officer with Chesapeake Asset Management LLC, a part of the FiNet independent business of Wells Fargo Advisors.

About Cary Street Partners

Cary Street Partners, A Luxon Financial Company provides comprehensive wealth management services including investment, estate planning and financial advice in a culture dedicated to high performance, independence and objective thinking. Our Cary Street Partners financial advisors serve families, institutions and companies with customized solutions tailored to fit each client's objectives for investments, life insurance, employee benefits, 401k and other retirement needs. Through Luxon Global Portfolios, we maintain a disciplined and objective approach in creating customized and turnkey investment solutions which facilitate our clients' ability to manage their desired asset allocation. Founded in 2002, Luxon Financial operates across 15 offices in six states in the dynamic Mid-Atlantic, Southern and Midwest markets.

For More Information:
Paige Garrigan
pgarrigan@carystreetpartners.com
O: 404.974.4984
M: 678.467.7577
Note: Headshots, additional bios available